Ministry Covenant

Persons seeking to minister to children and youth at Central Baptist Church must exhibit personal morality and character consistent with the Bible. While recognizing that grace abounds in our experience with Christ, and that in Christ there is forgiveness for moral failure, it is also recognized that biblical principles and standards are what qualify and empower an individual to lead. As such we ask you to affirm the following ministry covenant:

I hereby affirm the statement of faith of Central Baptist Church and agree not to teach any doctrine that is in variance with it.

I also agree to consistently model a lifestyle characterized by biblical morality and spiritual growth and I submit myself to correction and encouragement by the church in these matters.

I will seek to act lovingly toward all people, especially the children and youth whom I seek to serve.

Applicant's Statement of Affirmation

I hereby acknowledge that the information contained in this application for ministry is correct to the best of my knowledge. I authorize any references or churches listed in this application to give you any information they may have regarding my character and fitness for children's ministry, and I release all such references from liability for any damage that may result from furnishing such evaluation to you. With the understanding that the results will be confidential, I also grant my permission to Central Baptist Church to perform a personal Criminal Record Check and will take the steps necessary to conduct this check. I further declare that I have read and understand and agree to adhere to the Child Protection Policy (Plan to Protect) as adopted by Central Baptist Church. I furthermore affirm the ministry covenant above.
